no doubt. And it's not just nigration agreements woul clear in hindsight. Actualy would have been helpful if d speak up sooner. Never m not? Didn't think so.

MULTILINGUAL NEWS ARTICLE GENRE CLASSIFIER

developed by The University of Sheffield

AIM OF THE TOOL This service is able to identify news genre in 104 languages, but it will perform the best on the six languages on which it was trained: English, French, German, Italian, Polish and Russian. The classifier recognises 3 news genre categories: Satire; Opinionated News, and Objective Reporting.

MORE INFORMATION

The tool is based on our submission to the SemEval 2023 Task 3 and the follow-up journal publication.

Demo of the tool is provided as part of a EBU Webinar.

ACCESS TO THE TOOL The current version of the graphical user interface is accessible via cloud.gate.ac.uk/shopfront/displayItem/news-genre-classifier
